

TRAIN TO SHINE

Life • Home • Community

Interactive and practical workshops

The Disciplined Pursuit of Less

Time is the currency of life. Are you feeling overwhelmed and overworked but not fulfilled? Join us for an interactive, biblically- inspired workshop on time management.

FEB.

7

7:00 PM

The Power of Hospitality

How can we share God's love in tangible ways to the people He has placed in our path? How can we do it without feeling overburdened and exhausted? Discover practical tools to connect with neighbors, friends and even strangers.

FEB.

8

10:45 AM

S.H.I.N.E.

Join us for an inspiring workshop on how to Share His Incredible News Everywhere. Explore ways to make a meaningful impact in your local community through intentional outreach.

FEB.

8

1:45 PM

Decluttering Your Home

Join us for breakfast at 8:30AM. Then at 9:00AM we will discover tips on decluttering, organizing and decorating our homes. Transform your cluttered mess into a place of order and ministry!

FEB.

9

9:00 AM

VENUE NAME

Address

Raluca McRoberts

BA in Pastoral Evangelism
MA in Biblical Counseling
Certified Professional Organizer,
Decorator & Redesigner

Raluca's journey unfolded amidst Romania's beautiful Carpathian mountains during the Communist era.

After becoming a Seventh-Day Adventist and receiving her education, she has served in evangelism ranging from canvassing and Bible work to working for It Is Written Television.

Raluca has many years of experience training and equipping lay people, speaking and conducting inspiring workshops in many churches. Together with her husband, Joe, an airline pilot, they exemplify a partnership fueled by a shared mission to spread the gospel.

Raluca has been homeschooling her two children until recently. Sarah just graduated from Weimar University with a music degree and Josiah, a private pilot is working on his aviation ratings and is a part-time student at Southwestern Adventist University .

TrainToShine.com

Visit Raluca's YouTube
Channel Here >>>

